11+ Confidence: Practice Exam Papers Practice is the key to success. Pupils need experience in deciding and documenting their answers efficiently. They need total familiarity with the spectrum of multiple choice questions, and with the layout of question papers and response sheets. The Eureka! 11+ Confidence series of Exam Papers provides: Question papers laid out in modern, multiple-choice format Answer sheets laid out in modern format (in places requiring digit-by-digit entry) Full answers with explanations Supplementary books giving very detailed methods, tips and tricks on the more challenging aspects of Numerical Reasoning In supporting your child's preparation for the exam: Do as much exam paper practice as possible. Variety helps retain attention. Cut out the multiple choice answer sheet and use it to record the answers. Maximizing authenticity now minimizes exam-day anxiety. Do these practice exams formally: seated alone, away from television and radio. Immediately afterwards, encourage the pupil to mark their own work. Insist on discussing the questions which were not answered correctly. Do not set aside any errors as "silly mistakes." All mistakes are silly. The key to 11+ is attention to seemingly small details. Doing exam papers is a learning opportunity. Underline the importance of discovering how errors were made and how they may be prevented in future. Tips, tricks and (most of all) systematic approaches for avoiding the major traps at 11+ are given in the associated "Eureka! Dent's Modern Tribes Oct 10 2020 Did you know that . . . a soldier's biggest social blunder is called jack brew - making yourself a cuppa without making one for anyone else? That twitchers have an expression for a bird that can't be identified - LBJ (the letters stand for Little Brown Job)? Or that builders call plastering the ceiling doing Lionel Richie's dancefloor? Susie Dent does. Ever wondered why football managers all speak the same way, what a cabbie calls the Houses of Parliament, or how ticket inspectors discreetly request back-up? We are surrounded by hundreds of tribes, each speaking their own distinct slanguage of colourful words, jokes and phrases, honed through years of conversations on the battlefield, in A&E, backstage, or at ten-thousand feet in the air. Susie Dent has spent years interviewing hundreds of professionals, hobbyists and enthusiasts, and the result is an idiosyncratic phrasebook like no other. From the Freemason's handshake to the publican's banter, Dent's Modern Tribes takes us on a whirlwind tour of Britain, decoding its secret languages and, in the process, finds out what really makes us all tick.
